

Comment: It is difficult on a normal day to park in Southend sea front area. If the council decide to reduce the parking in this area for what ever reason they will definitely reduce the amount of visitors. It will not stop me or my very large family going to the sea front but sadly it won't be Southend that we will visit. Please do not turn Southend back to a second class seafront.

Contact: James blackender, 